Forecast for Friday 07 Aug 2020

Weather: A cloudy rather humid day, fog off the Irish Sea may affect eastern slopes at first, but will soon clear. Heavy showers are likely to break out at times giving a risk of thunder. Becoming dry through the evening. Clear skies developing overnight.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 700m: Summits mostly clear in the morning, although some thin low cloud possible on the eastern foothills at first. Cloud lowering to 450 metres as the rain arrives around mid to late morning, this lifting off the summits in the evening.

Visibility: Good in the morning, but turning rather hazy in rain.
